"Heyday"

In my young and innocent days
I used to dream my days away
Back in time when the world was young
I didn't know as much as I do now
I used to walk up and down the streets
Waiting for something to come over me
I believed in posters on my wall
Waited for days that didn't come at all

I sleepwalked and time went by Nothing gained didn't even try
The opportunities slipped my hands
Can't say I never had a chance
Some say I threw my life away
But I wouldn't have it any other way
You know there's really nothing wrong with me
I'm just not as eager as I used to be

Heyday where are you know?
Heyday I wish you would come
Heyday I've been waiting so long
And I'm still sitting here waiting for my heyday to come

Feels like running in a dream
I'll never get across that field
So just let me say
If you should hit the same road as I
You got to get used somehow
There's no other way

I ain't doing much nowadays
Sitting here all by myself
It doesn't matter much anymore
Don't have the same needs I had before
I can't say that I'm doing that bad
No use in missing what I never had
I don't worry it's never too late
I'll be ready when it's coming my way

Heyday...

Feels like running in a dream...
