I can't do this anymore, it doesn't make no sense
It's just a waste of time
I've gotta run, I've gotta run
I've been through it all before, here it comes again
It really gets me down
I've gotta run, I've gotta run

Already know what you're about to say
So I don't need this conversation again
'Cause it's always the same

I don't know what I'm gonna do
But I know that something's gonna happen soon
I've gotta run, I've gotta run
I'm tired if hanging around
I know the name of every street in town
I've gotta run, I've gotta run

Breaking the rules is the price to pay
But I can't stay here for the rest of my days
'Cause it all looks the same

Don't wanna talk about the weather anymore
My lips are sealed 'cause I've got nothing more to say
Don't need to listen when I've heard it all before
I know what you're about to say

You don't know what you're talking about
It's just a way for you to exercise your mouth
I've gotta run, I've gotta run
You're the kind I can do without
You talk too much and way too loud
I've gotta run, I've gotta run

Already know what you're about to say...

Don't wanna talk about the weather anymore...
