alance is broken, bleeding us dry
Too many days just pass us by
More than a mouthful, more than our share
Soft as a whisper suddenly there

The tide's rolling in
Tell me when to begin
What am I to do? What's it coming to?
The tide's rolling in
Tell me when to begin
What am I to do? What's it coming to?

Smooth and forever, a beautiful crime
How could I know this day would come? yeah
So if I should stumble, if I should fall
Give me a chance say nothing at all

The time's rolling in
Tell me where to begin
What am I to do? What's it coming to?
The time's rolling in
Tell me where to begin
What am I to do? What's it coming to?

You saw it coming down under disguise
You said it came as no surprise

The time's rolling in
Tell me how to begin
What am I to do? What's it coming to?...
