I know all about you
And everything you do
I've got all your records
I even bought your book
I guess I know you
'cause I've seen you nude
We were meant to be girl
I know you feel it too

So here I am
Your biggest fan
In bed without Madonna again

I wrote you letters
You never wrote me back
That's why I'm here now
Got so many things to ask

But once again
I find myself
In bed without Madonna again

Oh yeah here I am
Hello I'm your biggest fan
Come on come on please don't leave
Come on come on and talk to me

I'm outside your door
Been here before
I can't get you outta my head
I wanna see you dead

Well here I am
Your biggest fan
In bed without Madonna again
And once again
I find myself
In bed without Madonna again...
