They say she's an open book so maybe I can't read
'cause she's all mystery to me
I've been up all day and night and night and day again
I could really need a spell of sleep

Don't you know that she's my worst friend
You know she's my worst friend
Let me tell you 'bout my worst friend
Yeah you know she's my worst friend but still my friend

She's telling lies and I believe her all the time
'cause all I hear are words so sweet
A stream of empty words pouring from her mouth
And I just swallow everything

So let me tell you 'bout my worst friend...

Sometimes I think I know exactly where we are
But then she laughs and falls apart
We're walking down a street a street so black it shines
Maybe this time we've gone too far

Don't you know that she's my worst friend
