Twelve o'clock and it's time to get out of bed
There's a lot of things I should do today
Thinking 'bout the promises I made last night
When suddenly everything slips my mind

It's gonna be so much better tomorrow
I'm gonna start all over again
Everything's gonna be OK
'cause tomorrow is a better day

Out of sight out of mind
I can't do it now 'cause I've got no time
Out of sight out of mind
I've got no time
Right now

The landlord's here and he's knocking on my door
(No time no time)
I should have paid the rent weeks ago
(No time no time)

It's gonna be so much better...

Out of sight...

I tried to call you but I suddenly forgot
(No time no time)
There's a pile of reminders in the mailbox
(No time no time)

It's gonna be so much better...

Out of sight...
