"Scales To Skin"

You're so warm and I'm so cold
But heart to heart we're melting stone
They say our love is taboo
But we make love like flowers do
I don't mind if you're red or blue
I'm a reptile man I'm not like you

Heart to heart
Scales to skin...
My skin...

Warm affections in cold wars
Living on each side of the wall
They say our love will never last
Passion is a fuel burning fast

Heart to heart
Scales to skin...

Under the spell of eagerness
Between the sands of east and west
The torch of malice will it ever go out
We're the last of lovers in a world going down
I'm the candles on you're cake
And if you're Eva then I'm the snake

Heart to heart
Scales to skin...
