She's a fake, she's a lie
She's got class, she's got style
And she needs some attention tonight
She's the sun in her world, She's a smart little girl
But she don't want you to find out

Ooh-It's just a smoke screen
Ooh-That's all you've seen
Ooh-A smoke screen
She's so hard so hard to reach

She loves to be seen in a chic magazine
And she lives in a world of her own
She'll get tense and uptight she's lost without the lights
And she's so scared of being alone (She don't wanna be left alone)

Ooh-It's just a smoke screen
Ooh-That's all you've seen
Ooh-A smoke screen
She's so hard so hard to reach

There's a lot on her mind, she's like three of a kind
But she's losing herself in a lie
When you break that seal, It will all be revealed
But I don't think you'll like what you'll find

Ooh-It's just a smoke screen
Ooh-That's all you've seen
Ooh-A smoke screen
She's so hard so hard to reach
