You say I'm going down but it sure looks like up to me
You say I'm getting sloppy but I tell you wait and see You say I'm running out of limits and I'm slowing down too fast
But I got enough adrenalin to make you look like you're dead

Every morning when I rise you tell me what to do You sold my favorite records and you burned my favorite clothes
My guitar is in the pawnshop 'cause it didn't get me far
It didn't get me money and it didn't make me a star

I'm a snakepit rebel
Don't you love me like that ?
Don't you feel happy when I'm coming your way ?

Today I woke up screaming and it was because of you
But I can tell you baby I've got better things to do You hate the way I'm living and you say it all the time
But maybe my appearance is a blessing in disguise

I'm a snakepit rebel
Don't you love me like that ?
Don't you feel happy when I'm coming your way?...
