I saw you from behind took control over your mind
We travelled all around to the other side of town
There you bought a piece of soap and a picture of the pope
I think we had a lot of fun
Seen here from behind

I've been moving 'round in circles
Like a bird with just one wing

I've been wasting time
Wasting time
Wasting time
Wasting time oh yeah!

I followed you for hours wasted all my time
Counted all your footsteps but I don't remember why
I'm a fair minded soul so tired of being alone
How I wish I was that soap daily used by you

I've been moving 'round in circles
Like a bird with just one wing

I've been wasting time...

Huh!
Hey!

I've been moving...
I've been wasting time...
