We are the revolution and the institution
We are the sons of God and you're demise
We'll cut loose the dogs We're gonna burn your boots
We're gonna start another war

We're right
You're wrong
the end justifies the means

We are the next invasion and the resistance too
We are the wing commander
We are the henchmen
We are the cast of thousands
We are the civil war
And we're about to save your soul

We're right
You're wrong
the end justifies the means

And we know and we feel
We've got the rights on our side
Time will tell you will see
We've got the rights on our side

We're the detonator
We are the bomb squad
We're on every side we're anyone
We are the insurrection
We are the front brigade
We are the prisoner and the guard

We're right
You're wrong
the end justifies the means
