Sweet Revile/The Test Dream,Â©
Brandon Espinoza

Reaching the great disconnect our slates in need of coming clean im bleaching out the stains Breath in,hold,now let it out switch on the blackened heart our eyes align, were worlds apart revile starts, try to brave the storm try to ride the waves

I'm drowning in your words your messages is coming in clear its stained around my thoughts
"im losing to tidal waves" your drifting out from me, out to sea under tidal waves my vessel stays lost for days im seeing the meaning of our flames its today that we stray our own ways

fled from the broken heart
our eyes align, were worlds apart dissension marks, the ending point were left under the waves

"im losing to tidal waves"
