You're the best thing that ever happened to me
Look at the Stars saying that we were meant to be
Being with you is the new best day of my life
Can you come with me tonight
And make this evening feels right

So are you ready, Here we go
Count 1-2-3 and together we will go

Will you come with Me and escape into the Night
Will you Run With Me and go into the light
We will break all the walls that are built around us
We can make our love feel free
Will just escape into the night

When the sun goes down, I'll be on your window
So that they wont know will just take it slow
I'll keep you here in my arms safe and sound
When the night has come around
I will never let you down

So are you ready, Here we go
Count 1-2-3 and together we will go

Will you come with Me and escape into the Night
Will you Run With Me and go into the light
We will break all the walls that are built around us
We can make our love feel free
Will just escape into the night

Trust my love for you will always be true
They could Lock us, but they could never stop our Hearts
And forever we will be together
Into the skies of love
I will take you above

Don't let them get on our way tonight
For our love together we will fight

Will you come with Me and escape into the Night

Will you Run With Me and go into the light
We will break all the walls that are built around us
We can make our love feel free

Will you come with Me and escape into the Night
Will you Run With Me and go into the light
We will break all the walls that are built around us
We can make our love feel free
Will just escape into the night

Will just escape into the night
Will just escape into the night
