When my eyes caught you
An angel looked my way
And I got so uptight
I didn't know what to say

Countless times I
Have looked in your direction
So I see a shadow
Sillouhette of your perfection

I don't like my chances
You're just so beautiful
And my love drunk heart is
Yearning out of control
For you

You're the reason why the sun
Is still brightly shining
In the midst of midnight
Under the moonlight
You're the only one I'm dreamin of 1000 hours with you
The only wish I want true
Woah oh oh you're my dream girl

If there was only one thing I could do
Till the sun and stars end
Would be to have my arms around you
I wanna be more than friends

But I doubt that will happen
Cause we're never chattin
I figured it out it won't be true
Oh but you're eyes are the brightest of all the colours
I think I'm falling in love with you

I don't like my chances
You're just so beautiful
And my love drunk heart is
Yearning out of control
For you

You're the reason why the sun
Is still brightly shining
In the midst of midnight
Under the moonlight
You're the only one I'm dreamin of
1000 hours with you
The only wish I want true
Woah oh oh

With a smile so sweet
And your long brown hair
And you're bright white teeth
Not to mention your stare
It's so innocent
Just sheer brilliance
I've spent 1000 hours under the moonlight dreamin
bout you
Now I need 1000 more to make that dream come true

I don't like my chances
For you

You're the reason why the sun
The only wish I want true

You're my dream girl
