Well I just got home
Finally I'm alone
It's been a crazy day

All this non-stop rushin around
And even in this little bitty town
Everybody's got something to say
I throw my stuff on the floor
And lock all of the doors
Gonna find some peace inside

Isn't it good tonight
Now I'm here everything's all right
Isn't it good tonight
I don't have to wait til the morning light comes down

Now I'm lying here
Nothing to interfere with this dream I have of you
It's you lying next to me
We fit so easilt and there's nothing I can't say

And Isn't it good tonight
I'm in your arms and everything seems right
Isn't it good tonight
I don't have to wait til the morning light comes down

Isn't it good tonight
I don't wanna move until the morning light baby
Isn't it good tonight
I don't have to leave til the morning light comes down

Stay by my side
