When I think of you, my whole body smiles
You take me to a place where my emotions tend to race
My mind can't keep the pace
When I dream of you, I feel so brand new I cry to have you here, a vision so clear I wish I could have you near

Spring rains come and go, the earth begins to smile Can I shower down you? Then you could fill me with pride
Because this feels so right
Could you be my earth? Can I be your sky?
Will you help me please, make the thunder grove
tonight

When I'm next to you, I can hardly stand
I can't eat, I can't drink
I'm so delighted I can't speak
Could you be my strength because I'm weak

Just like the sun chases the moon
No one can understand why Girl I'm so into you, won't you help me eclipse this mood tonight?
Because this feels so right
Could you be my earth? Can I be your sky?
Won't you help me please, make the thunder grove
tonight

Just like the sun chases the moon
No one can understand why Can I shower down on you? Then you can fill me with life tonight
Because this feels so right
Could you be my earth? Can I be your sky?
Won't you help me please, come and make the thunder grove tonight
