You got a perfect girl
And it's a perfect world
You build a fortress around you
Can see no reason not to continue

The things that you always dreamed about
You know that in time
They'll be runnin' out
Stop turnin' around and round and round

Everything you wanted will be falling down
Like castles in the sand
Everything you needed in the world
You're holdin', holdin' in your hands

And if this comfortable life
Is your only passage through time
Just make sure you can break through
The walls that you are buildin' around you

The things that you always dreamed about
You know that in time
They'll be runnin' out
Stop turnin' around and round and round

Everything you wanted will be falling down
Like castles in the sand
Everything you needed in the world
You're holdin', holdin' in your hands

You wanna be part of the world
You gotta hand somethin' over
Wanna be part of the world

The things that you always dreamed about
You know that in time they'll be runnin' out
The things that you always dreamed about
So turn it around and round and round

Everything you wanted will be falling down
Like castles in the sand
Everything you needed in the world

You're holdin', holdin' in your hands

Everything you need
That you want to hold it, hold it now
Everything that you need
You're holdin' in your hands

Everything that you want
Hold it, hold it now
Everything that you need
It's in your hands
