Time has a way of casting doubt Life is a cage they let you out So fly while you can...

So little time don't let it go to waste Hold your ground don't throw it all away And take a chance now...

One will hear the other
One will heal the other
One will free the other
One, it's all the same, same, same

One will hear the other
One will heal the other
One will free the other
One, it's all the same, same, same

So talk. Let em know you feel this way We all have got something good to say Seek, and you'll find

So little time don't let it go to waste Hold your ground don't throw it all away And take a chance now

One will hear the other
One will heal the other
One will free the other
One, it's all the same, same, same

One will hear the other
One will heal the other
One will free the other
One, it's all the same, same, same

So little time don't let it go to waste Hold your ground, don't throw it away

One will hear the other One will heal the other One will free the other
One, it's all the same, same, same

It's all the same yeah

One will hear the other One will hear the other One will hear the other It's all the same yeah...
