Of all the empires left to sing about
You're on your way now, there can be no doubt
With the vampires, and the nobodies

You wander round
Don't know who you are Underground or a shining star
Spinning all round your head

Cover your eyes
Try to block it out
All we've been through
All we've been without

We'll leave em something they can talk about when it's over,
Time, it ain't over when it's over
Time, it ain't over

Treading landmines
Getting knocked about
All your allies have started thinning out
And you can't hide, getting older

You wander round
People come and go
You run aground like everyone you know
All the vampires, please leave

Cover your eyes, try to block it out
All your insides want to scream and shout

We'll leave em something they can talk about when it's
Time, it ain't over when it's over
Time, it ain't over when it's over
Time, it ain't over when it's over
Time, it ain't over

When you think that you'e alone
Its the same everyone you know

When there's no way out
You turn it round
And carry on...

When it's over...

You're on your way now, there can be no doubt
We'll leave em something they can talk about

Time, it ain't over when it's over
Time, it ain't over when it's over
Time, it ain't over when it's over
Time, it ain't over
