Midnight, and I'm feeling all right but my baby is tired
We drove down to a party in town
And I should have known I was gonna drink too hard
The windy road when I'm driving it home
Every twist and turn
I've had enough of the way I was
Seems like by now it's time to learn
The way

The back porch where we first kissed is where we said so long
I headed out to find what it is that makes a man want to come back home
The windy road when I'm driving it home
Every twist and turn
I've had enough of the way I was
Seems like by now it's time to learn
The way

The West is right and the East is left when you're headed South
The sun will rise, and the sun will set another day, another chance to figure out
The windy road when you're driving it home
Each and every turn
I've had enough of the way I was
Seems like by now it's time to learn
The way
