Speaking with a purpose but some folks out there be hating they be saying that money talks, I talk it but you aint relating some people in the business tried to cheat me like they satan but I am the mixtape messiah, and the south's my congregation

[Bridge]

You aint know?
I get the dough
then get some mo (You dont believe me you a dummy)

You aint know?
I get a load for every show
(You dont believe me you a dummy)

[Verse 1]

used to be be stylin' on that court, got eliminated in my sport now that Jersey Village coach can see I'm hotter than a torch all the seven foot white boys used to tell me that I was short now money longer than a mother but I'm too tall to drive a Porsche I played my album for The Source, on a clock radio of course now Im in the middle of Norway, doing shows until I'm hoarse now my middle finger is up and I show the industry no remorse
Im the messiah of mixtapes, choir, get up and rejoice getting screwed before I was chopped, never was signed to Michael Watts listenin to 97.9 the Box while I'm thinking bout buyin stocks buying Jordans outta the picture didn't have money to buy the socks now I'm sitting on 28's, rough riding like the Lox used to be working that fast food, they had me washing pans and pots now I got fans that are stans, rooting for me like Im Pac who woulda known I woulda blown from making a song about the cops now cops pulling up at my shop, telling me that they like my drops

[Hook]
