"End Of Peace"

It was only yesterday, that you were gone
My life turned upside down, isolation calls
Your lips burned poison, your tongue spoke pain
Your eyes threw daggers deep into my veins
The battle that rages inside you, is a feeling that haunts me
No signs of forgiveness, no signs of peace!

Peace, Love, Hate

So this is how it feels, to be alone
No piercing stare that cuts me to the bone
Blood runs off my tongue, you better run
No longer love, all I feel is hate
The battle that rages inside me, is a feeling that haunts
you
No signs of forgiveness, no signs of peace!
Is this the ending, or a new beginning?
Will this war ever cease?
Is this the end, the end of peace?

The battle that rages inside me, is a feeling that haunts
you
No signs of forgiveness, no signs of peace!

Take these words of forgiveness, and shove your peace
Peace, Love, Hate... Hate!
