I will not wait in line
I will not lay down and die
I will not fight these pages, wrote them on my own

And then you... read these pages, memorize
Then recite them back and see
Realize the lies you have inside
And then just let me be
Get far away from me
And then let me be

Tell me today is the time
To fucken put your ass on the line
And fill these pages with your lies and your goodbyes

And then you... read these pages, memorize
Then recite them back and see
Realize the lies you have inside
And then just let me be

I will not wait in line
I will not lay down and die
I will not fight these pages, wrote them on my own

And then you... read these pages, memorize
Then recite them back and see
Realize the lies you have inside
And then just let me be
Get far away from me
And then let me be

Tell me it's time to let my feelings go
