She said "Baby can we save the world?"
I think we can It's just I don't know about now
She said "Baby just take the wheel"
So I can rest my weary eyes

-Chorus-

Because the world don't seem so safe
On Highway 75
All the leeches turnin' tricks just for a dime
You know the world don't seem so safe
On Highway 75 anymore

When it rains it pours in the part of town
It's never enough to clean up this air
Flashlights and fireflys won't light up
This dark old underpass where we once sat

-Chorus_

There's something in the air now
Taking away my breath
How do we turn this city around?
It's all up in the air now
Taking away my breath
How will we burn this city down?

-Chorus-
