Everywhere I go Â– everything I do
Is focused on Mrs. V or betta 'yet Mrs. Boo
Twice as nice Â– a blend of sugar and spice
No, never do me wrong with the name Mrs. Right
See we're the perfect tandem Â– so it ain't random
More like fate because we're lifetime soulmates
High up in the clouds then we can both climb
All the way to heaven 'til we reach Cloud Nine
The physical is great, but let's cut to the chase
Her inner beauty will shine past the fakes
Straight up and down Â– she's a lady 'bout town
It's just the two of us cuz that's how it's goin' down
North, south, east, west Â– I'll take her by the hand
But she's always to the left cuz I'm her right-hand man
Fantasies are fine but I spend my time
On the grind searchin' for my special dimepiece so fine

I'm searching the sky for an angel from above
All about the ladies all about one love
I'm searching the sky for an angel from above
All about the ladies all about one love
I'm searching the sky for an angel from above
All about the ladies all about one love

I'm down to earth but my focus is the sky
Skies the limit and the limit ain't the sky
All the stars seem perfectly aligned
Hope my shooting star won't pass me by
So I try to catch it anyway I can
It's like the stardust slips through my hands
Take the righteous path but I don't know where I'm goin'
The Milky Way keeps expandin' and growin'
I'm tiptoin' through the shadows of the night
She's got that glow that burns so bright
Once I've found her I touch the sky
This is what is meant by a natural high
Enlightenment and illumination
Not just a crush or mere infatuation
She brings out the best in me
And I do the same for her so splendidly

I'm searching the sky for an angel from above
All about the ladies all about one love
I'm searching the sky for an angel from above
All about the ladies all about one love
I'm searching the sky for an angel from above
All about the ladies all about one love

This is real talk. I'm talkin' rock solid devotion
Out past the waves, the currents & open ocean
Floatin', coastin' on a parallel path
We would stick together through a stellar collapse
Or perhaps until the very end of time
I'd spend all that time just to make her mine
My own special valentine – that's how I'd handle mine Can't believe I'm even with a woman that's got half her shine
Even though she comes from above I know that we're down
Compliments come in large amounts & astound
No photograph or picture can capture her beauty
It's her life force within that shines truly
That's how it be – we supersede
The superfluous, extraneous and earthly
It's all on the up & up so we both fly
So lovely now that I've found the apple of my eye

I'm searching the sky for an angel from above
All about the ladies all about one love
I'm searching the sky for an angel from above
All about the ladies all about one love
I'm searching the sky for an angel from above
All about the ladies all about one love
