This morning you love me
And tomorrow you will see that nothing's changed
Sometimes you wonder
Do you really love a voice without a face
And your boyfriend hates me
I find myself waiting
To get you on the phone again today
I will colour your morning
The one who make the smile and save your day
And your boyfriend hates me
How I wish you could see me
Playing my part as a radiostar
How I wish you could feel my invisible star
I'm your radiostar
I'm a radiostar
The story's so easy
I'm on air but down to earth is where you are
These honeydewfeelings
Only distance keeps them alive
And your boyfriend hates me
How I wish you could see me

Playing my part as a radiostar
How I wish you could feel my invisible star
I'm your radiostar
I'm a radiostar
And your boyfriend hates me
You only know my voice
And your boyfriend hates me
(dÃ¼dÃ¼dÃ¼dÃ¼dÃ¼)
How I wish you could see me
Playing my part as a radiostar
How I wish you could feel my invisible star
I'm your radiostar
As a radiostar
As a radiostar
Oh a radiostar
Radiostar
