What have I become, I'm your alone, you did not care but I want more What else is right, into , save a lifetime of love for you but you don't care

Isn't it something in your eyes Isn't it something in your smile Isn't it something I can change, the point of view

Could have been lost that I have found
Could have been waiting and sit to the ground
Could have been a job that won't fool me, help me please

Just one , I'm under your spell You're with my soul, I greet you ...as I lay still And now I come to realize that I'm not happy without your eyes I cheated myself and let you in just like fem, that's , it , 2 hearts

Could have been something in your eyes
Could have been something in your smile Could have been something I can change, the point of view
Could have been lost that I have found
Could have been waiting and sit to the ground
Could have been a job that won't fool me, help me
please

Tell me what's that in your eyes
I will let you be right Tell me what's that on your heart And oh my God, you don't ask from , accept the ones that I can't touch what have I done?

Thanks to Andrei
