I'm runnin' right back to the Bitter Town
And I wanna say when
And I'm runnin' fast
I'm runnin' yeah

I solved a lot of problems back in the day
Called some old friends
They put me in a better place

I'm runnin' right back to the Bitter Town
And I know my rights

Follow me
Follow me
Warm set into the sun it makes
Falling in tales of woe
Tales of non-spin

I'm runnin' right back to the Bitter Town
And I wanna say when
And I'm runnin' fast

I solved a lot of problems back in the day
Called some old friends
They put me in a better place

I'm runnin' right back to the Bitter Town
And I know my rights
And I know them

Follow me
Follow me
Her Highness sits down by the lake and feels
Discarding nonsense
Falling diatribes
