I'm going to meet you.

Voices are child in sound
Fades away...
For silence is walking, signs of you will leave.

What will happen is the same for you
Til the end of someones world
And the cradle says goodbye to yesterday...

Painfully, I prepare a release
And poison takes me away.
Poison takes me away...

Takes me away.

Listen, don't cry my child
When you awake...
My father's table set a place for you.

Contact, with firefull love
As you're to know my days
A season of poison will bring the darkness soon.

Painfully, I prepare a release
And poison takes me away.
Poison takes me away...

Takes me away.

On angels wings
You learn to fly.

From this world you left below
I'm going to meet you
I've come to take you home.

Mommy! mommy!

I'm going to meet you
I've come to take you home.

I'm going to meet you
I've come to take you home.

Painfully, I prepare a release
And poison takes me away.
Poison takes me away...

On angels wings
You learn to fly.
On angels wings
You learn to fly.
