The tears I'm shedding now

I hear will dry in time
The fears I'm fearing now

I hear will die in time
But while I wait around for tomorrow

Watching life drift away
What about

Yes
What about

Today?
I know if I just wait
The sun will shine some day
And when it does

The weather will be fine someday
And while the skies I search for tomorrow

Stay that same shade of gray
What about

Yes
What about

Today?

'Til nirvana comes
What about today?
'Til messiah comes

What about today?
'Til the mountains move
And oceans part
And angels sing
And life can start
What about

Yes

What about

Today?

I can't help wondering
If tomorrow ever comes
And what's my life been lived for

If it never comes
I've heard a lot of toasts to tomorrow

But none of them ever say
What about today?
What about today?

'Til nirvana comes
What about today?
'Til messiah comes

What about today?
'Til the mountains move
And oceans part
And angels sing
And life can start
What about

Yes
What about

Today?

I can't help wondering
If tomorrow ever comes
And what's my life been lived for

If it never comes
I've heard a lot of toasts to tomorrow

But none of them ever say
What about today?
What about today?

What about
Yes
What about

Today?
