"Anxiety"

I know I'll rely on you ,too easy
All , people to blame, I won't die for you, too necessary
And they say your best isn't good enough
And they say your best isn't good enough
And to hear yours, and to hear yours
And they say your best isn't good enough

I feel I did the best I can before I was exposed
But she says she still believes in love
All this anxiety it does nothing for me
And they say your best isn't good enough
And they say your best isn't good enough
And to hear yours, and to hear yours
And they say your best isn't good enough

, wasted my time, ,wasted my time
I know I've relied on you I've had it too easy
I know all the people to blame
I'm not gonna die for you, it's so so unnecessary
And they say your best isn't good enough
And they say your best isn't good enough
And to hear yours, and to hear yours
And they say your best isn't good enough.
