"Again"

Visit "Again" on MotoLyrics.com

I've been picked up thrown down and tossed aside
You let my life get torn apart
At every chance I get I run away try to hide
Could you just give me up

I sacrifice my heart
for every moment with you
Don't let this fall apart
We'll be chasing a dream again

It's so much trouble to let me go you decide Throwing this life away
Give me one more look and you will find burning bright
My fire inside

I sacrifice my heart
for every moment with you
Don't let this fall apart
We'll be chasing a dream again

I've been sacrificing my heart
for every moment with you
Don't you let this fall apart
We'll be chasing a dream again
