Somewhere I heard someone say
Your heart will always lead the way
Trust in all the gods above
Just wait 'cause your faith is Predestinated

Somebody would set my pace
A gentle hand of touch and grace
And suddenly I saw your face
I knew in my heart that all the gods were smiling

refrain:
My love light
Keeps burning
As bright as the star up above you
My love light
Keeps turning
The time and the tied 'cause I love you
My love light so true

Like a gentle summer rain
That makes a desert bloom again
Oh, you touch my body and my soul
With hands up, forgiving
I started living

You'll always be a part of me
And where you'll go that's where I'll be
And in the darkest star, you'll see
In day or the night, I'll be there right beside you refrain (2x)

It's shining for you
My love light so true
