Champagne, private flight, flowing through the night
Morning, take a pill, still the same (in your brain)

(Party this life away, come with me)
Now we're standing on the wall that's falling
(Party this life away, come with me)
'Cause I know exactly where we're going!

Chorus

You need it, just believe me!
There is nothing that I can't do for ya
I know that love is all we need
From Moscow to California
We need it, just believe me!
You will see the world spinning for ya
We gotta let the music free
Catch this moment, moment, moment

On the road, no return to the past, let it burn
Tower heights, flashing lights, love is blind
(lose your mind)

(Party this life away, come with me)
Now we're standing on the wall that's falling
(Party this life away, come with me)
'Cause I know exactly where we're going!

Chorus

(Timati Rap)

She gonna drop the top, my car roofless
She gonna party hard, bulletproof this
In that SLS switching lanes
Put up a bang like champagne
How we killing that man, no stopping, man
How we killing that man, red bottom gang

Couldn't stay the same, only love playing game
I tell you, it's a worldwide thing

Party this life away, come with me
Party this life away, come with me

Chorus

I still don't think I have Timati's rap completely correct, so if you have any suggestions/corrections, please let me know. Thanks to Silent Rebel for his suggestions.
