I'm standing here
Waiting for
The day
When you're coming
Coming back home

It's been so long
Since I ever get to be with you
And to see you
And to hold you
And I will never let you go
Anymore

Where are you love
Do you know that I'm wishing for
You to be right here beside me
Where are you my love
Oh I know that you know
That I am really missing you

I'm sitting here
Thinking bout
The times
When you were still
Here by my side

Now my life
Is so different
Without you here
And I want you
And I need you
To fill my life with joy
Once again

Where are you love
Do you know what I'm wishing for
You to be right here beside me
Where are you my love
Oh I know that you know
That I am really missing you

Now my life feels so empty
You made a big gaping whole in my heart
Now it's too difficult to live my days
Cuz baby
You complete my life

Where are you love
Do you know what I'm wishing for
You to be right here beside me
Where are you my love
Oh I know that you know
That I am really really missing you

And I'm really really missing you
