Lyrics/Music W.Bullock/H.Spina

(George Murphy)

Little Miss Broadway

Is going to town

That toast of all Broadway

Up town and down

We met them all

With a smile for a crown

For two little feet

On that fabulous street

Oh the talk of the town

Everyone of them proud

Oh, Little Miss Broadway

Up on her toes

With music and laughter

Wherever she goes

Everyone loves her

And everyone knows

She captured Manhattan

From Harlem to Statten

And thousands of folk

Through Miss Broadway

(Shirley)

I'm here and you're here

And thousands more here

But where is Broadway

You're here and I'm here

We're marching down here

Oh where is Broadway

(George Murphy)

Broadway is not what it used to be

We need a new steet

A just for you street

And just for fun

I'll show you how it's done

I'll build a Broadway for you ---

We'll trade the old for the new ---

I'll make you famous

In old Times Square ---

I'll have your name in neon shining there

You'll be their favourite child ---

We'll have the crowds going wild ---

I'll build a dream street
Where wishes come true
I'll build a Broadway for you
