You said, you love me, oh, how you lied?
And when I found out, I nearly died
But baby, here is what I say
My heart belongs to you

You bedded me by saying sweet things
And since you've got me nothings the same
But darling, all that I can say is
My heart belongs to you

Oh, well I did things because I loved you
And to no other could I be true
Because as long as I am living
My heart belongs to you

You said, you love me and how you lied
And when I found out I nearly died
But baby, here is what I say
My heart belongs to you

Oh, well I did things because I loved you
And to no other could I be true
Because as long as I am living
My heart belongs to you
