I'm exhausted
I think I've lost it
I think it's time to move on
I'm hooked on anchor
Don't wanna stay here
But I will miss it when I'm gone
Greetings good friend
Don't get stuck here, I'm losing it
Let's not pretend
You took no part, in choosing it
I wanna see the world
But I've been shackled by the hands and the feet
And it's this crutch that I can never defeat
My cast iron enemy
And I'll struggle until I'm free
I wanna see the world
But I've been shackled by my hands and the feet
