I know how you say you know and I've seen how you rely I've caught you at the window such a classic heroine you've always been a wall away but I've also heard you crying behind who said I saved your soul and it's always the same thing you keep calling as if nothing is obvious

we are wandering
it's no way then maybe then somebody's sorry well egos have been dented but you never seem to mind

I can always tell with what you wear just how deep you're in denial the callous keeps the blood away it's a castle built of my own design
you wanna save my soul

and then it's always the same thing
it's no way then maybe then somebody's sorry
and we try again

once again here we go then it's over then we go again it's getting old but I know we're gonna go again my conscience says push it away but my body has something else to say it's over each time and again well I think it was over before we even began

SOLO

and you were always there and you would always be there

here we go again

here we go again

here we go again

here we go again

here we go again

yea

here we go then it's over here we go here we go
