should I swim, swim through it all sing starlight your curtain call you are mine your violence over me It's holding me here....

another long line through the indigo
It's a long night when you lie alone hit another wall hit another wall asylum an asylum it's an island.....

what did you ever think?
what did you ever think that you would find?
you found out that I've imagined every enemy and the violence of you and I
what did you ever think?
what did you ever think that you would find?
you found out that I've abandoned every part of me for the island of you and I
It's so silent
It's so silent
It's so silent

and did I care when it came along?
another nightmare sweeter sounds a gong,
drinking sunlies greater conscience holding me,
enslaving me here....

left a long life lost the motherload
tear a wall down a thousand more to go sickle silence sickle silence above me It's above me gonna kill me.....
