got my mind on a race car get in and drive far driving alone
will I ever learn got my mind on a lady married her one day I end up
alone
will I ever learn
when will I ever learn got my mind off on somethin what are you thinkin she is alone

will I ever learn
got a monster above me you wouldn't believe it it caught me alone guess I'll never learn got to get myself off the floor I know you shot me I need it just don't abort

turn around did you know I was bleeding turn around turn around this is no way to leave it turn around got a soothing affection and somebody needs it I enjoy it alone

will I ever learn got a selfish appraisal but what does it matter cause if Im alone
no way I'll ever learn tell me am I defending the alamo is it better to leave it burning and go

turn around good life is quickly receding turn around I guess I'll never learn going somewhere and Im thinkin and Im thinking of somewhere is it better to leave it better to make my bed in a black hole I know
