Chorus

Leaving for the stars
And I will fly tonight
High up in the sky
I will never return
High up in the sky
Is where my future lies
It's time to say goodbye
I will never return

Prechorus:

And I know
I might die
Never reach paradise
Nothing's holding me back
Things I know
Is left behind
Time has come
No worried mind
Nothing's holding me back

Verse

Explanation
Non existing
No more sanity
Time has come
Reason's gone
It's time I'm leaving the earth
Destination
Unknown places
Only fantasy
Hope is here
Time is near
For me I'm leaving the Earth

Guitarsolo - Gabriel

Chorus

Leaving for the stars
And I will fly tonight
High up in the sky
I will never return
High up in the sky
Is where my future lies
It's time to say goodbye
I will never return

Prechorus:

And I know
I might die
Never reach paradise
Nothing's holding me back
Time has come
No worried mind

Verse

Space is calling
No more yearning
For a better time
Soon I'm gone
Won't come back
Tonight I'm leaving the Earth
Limitations
Left behind
Farewell to boundaries
Fear is gone
Almost gone
Goodbye I'm leaving the Earth

Guitar solo - Christian

Finale

The Countdown has begun
The engine is turned on
It's time to go
To face the unknown
To face the unknown
