"After The Fall"

Some blind men say 'yell to be heard'
Saint Barbarone swollen like a drum
Smell the blood, bullets on the floor
Cruelty unleashed devouring the flame
Love and hate will dominate
I feared for the actor, I screamed for the stage!
Angels and insects alone in their cage, after the fall
her to him
A bad leg religion where madness is king
Queen of assassination do not denounce me
Stand on a drum, give up the throne!
Hammer the wind that makes you sing
Suck in the skin that you're living in
After the fall, her to him, shaking a stick... (etc.)
'Drink and drink to the teachers of selfishness
And the vulgarity that follows!
'Recht und ordnung! '
