One day on the beach
The water was nice and warm
When I closed my eyes
I felt the breeze like a gentle kiss

All our friends were there
Everybody was having fun
Don't you know, don't you know
It was a summer that I won't forget

Do you remember the picture we took together?
In front of the sandcastle on the shore

Another day on the beach
Feel the warmth of the sun
When I close my eyes
I remember having so much fun

Walking on the sand
Singing songs and holding hands
Don't you know, don't you know
It was the summer that I won't forget

Do you remember the dreams we shared together?
We put 'em in a bottle and threw them out to sea
Do you remember the songs we sang together?
Anyway, hey, hey, the games we play
(That's right)

The summer sun disappears behind the sea
And the shadows grow longer with the passing days
Colors fade as the time goes by
And I'm looking for the reason why
Our beautiful summer had to end
(But)

Don't you know, don't you know
It was the summer that I won't forget
Don't you know, don't you know
It was the summer that I won't regret

Anyway, hey, hey, the games we play

Anyway, hey, hey, another day
