A strawberry cake, it is my headache.
I always try to resist temptation, but I lose.
How nice if i ate (cakes)

But didn't get fat
I feel like eating cakes

Just before going to bed
Heavy cream
What a charming word
A rare cheesecake
At my coffee break
I ate it and soon repented having it

I dont want to be
Like the big elvis
I must guard against being overweight

Some pumpkin
Makes me grow fat

See me at the scales
How much do you weigh
Wont you have some tasty cakes from now on
Tomorrow is the day
To stop eating cakes
Its like talking to a statue in the park
