Performed by Stevie Nicks with Melissa Etheridge)

I stood at the door and watched while you drove away driving my car, in the rain, in the dark Well, every dog seems to have her day.
I've been in this, alone so long and I'm begining to wonder why I stand in one place, a different name
a different face.

no ones gonna see me cry
I need someone to stand by me stand by me, just one time.
I hope somebody stands by me stands by me, just one time I don't understand,
it's slipping through these hands.
I think by now I know,
where to let go
all I know is here I am baby

won't you stand by me?

I'm not bending tonight but, I'm twisted and turned and broken down

But Im starting to know the sound of something, no one, and yet,

everything.

Well if God's here tonight are you here tonight?

Maybe you could grab me up, stand me on my feet

give me strength

set me free.

Im not giving in till

I've had enough.

I need someone to stand by me

stand by me, just one time.

I hope somebody stands by me

I don't understand,

it's slipping through these hands.

I think by now I know,

where to let go

won't you stand by me?

stand by me, just one time.

I hope somebody stands by me

I don't understand,

it's slipping through these hands.

I think by now I know,

where to let go
