Well we tried and tried to get it right
Come close, a few times too
The lunatics run the asylum
And animals run the zoo
Criminals are all heroes, police break the law
And philosophers are all findin' out
They don't know nothing at all, naw!

[Chorus]

One day we're gonna get ourselves together
Just when, I don't know, I can't say
It may be tomorrow, it may be today
Or 15 million light-years away
Or 15 million light-years away

The man who makes the rules,
_____,
Lies to you once again
When right is wrong, and wrong is right
The whole damn world is in a spin

[Chorus]

One day we're finally get ourselves together
Just when, I don't know, I can't say
It may be tomorrow, it may be today
Or 15 million light-years away
Or 15 million light-years away

The world ain't what it should be
And humanity ain't humane
And the good lord, gives 'em free will
To make the same mistakes again and again
Well we tried an' tried to get it right
Come close, a few times too
_____?

Is one thing, maybe two
The lunatics run the aslyum
And animals run the zoo

[Chorus]

One day we're gonna get ourselves together

Just when, I don't know, I can't say, a way
Where there's a will, there's a way
It may be tomorrow, it could be today
Or 15 million light-years away
Yeah, 15 million light-years away
Or 15 million light-years away
Or 15 million light-years away
