

Shooter Jennings "She Lives In Color"

Visit "She Lives In Color" on MotoLyrics.com

O darlin' that satin gown
So beautiful you shut my mouth
No need to read our love aloud
Go on and put those candles out
And gone to me

Had a feeling since I was three
That there was something else inside of me
That I didn't want the world to see
You're the one that brought that out of me

She is a diamond, who shatters like glass
She lives in color, in a world white and black, and after
it all
There were times when things got bad
I didn't want to see the love you had
There were friends and lovers in my wake
Like a lighthouse you sailed me in safe

She is a diamond, who shatters like glass
She lives in color, in a world white and black, and after
it all

Visit Shooter Jennings page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.