The world going by my window doesn't mean nothing
to me,
why do I feel the way I do, why am I still so lost in you,
I wonder.

Watching you sleep each morning, brushing the hair
from your eyes,
why do we give ourselves away, 'till only emptiness remains ?

Was there a reason you came and changed my life ?
'cause it won't change back,
I'm trying to forget, but I can't act as if we never met.

[solo]

Oh, the world going by my window doesn't mean nothing to me,
Why do I feel the way I do, darlin' I'm still so lost in you.

Was there a reason you came and changed my life ?
'cause it won't change back,
I'm trying to forget, but I can't act as if we never met.
