Say you can't believe a single thing I've said
You laughed and called me a fool
You tell me that you've heard all of this before
Maybe you should think before you close the door

What If I'm right
What if I'm really gonna love you all my life
What if a brand new me was standing here tonight
Would you take my hand and give me one more try
What if you're wrong, what if I'm right

Said I've made mistakes too many times
And you think that won't stop now
You've been burned too much to play this game again
Girl, until tonight I didn't want to win

What If I'm right
What if I'm really gonna love you all my life
What if a brand new me was standing here tonight
Would you take my hand and give me one more try
What if you're wrong, what if I'm right

INSTRUMENTAL

What If I'm right
What if I'm really gonna love you all my life
What if a brand new me was standing here tonight
Would you take my hand and give me one more try
What if you're wrong, what if I'm right
What if you're wrong, what if I'm right
